A VALENTINE WEDDING.

Brilliant Wedding of Mr. Clinton Eneyart and Miss Emma Girvin at Marceline, Missouri.

Today, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Girvin, the nuptials of their daughter, Emma, and Mr. Clinton Arthur Eneyart, were celebrated, at high noon. Rev. T. J. Eneyart, of Oregon, Mo., father of the groom, officiated. It was a simple service, according to the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church, but very beautiful, with its floral setting, and impressive, with the significant words spoken by the minister.

During the strains of Rubenstein's Melody in F, played by Miss Gertrude Lyle, the bride and groom entered the east parlor, unattended, and stood before an embankment of flowers and potted plants, while the solemn words were said which made them one. Directly after the ceremony an elaborate dinner was served.

The scheme was pink and white, appropriate to the day of St. Valentine, and the parlors, especially the ceremony room, were profusely decorated with lilies, roses and carnations, all in pleasing combination with the potted greenery. In the dining room carnations only were used. The bride's cake and various other parts of the menu were heart-shaped. Dinner partners were found by matching the piece of valentine which had been cut in two.

The bride looked beautiful indeed in her girlish frock of white nun's veiling and tulle. Her going away gown is one of the new cutaway coat suit which are to be worn so much this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Eneyart will leave Sunday, for Emporia, Kansas, where Mr. Eneyart is chief clerk in the Santa Fe trainmaster's office, and where he has already furnished a home for his bride.

Both are so well known in Marceline that comment is unnecessary, except as an introduction to the people among whom they will make their home.

These, we will say that Mr. Eneyart is a fine young man, a Santa Fe boy of the best type and one whom they may be proud to call a friend.

With the host of good wishes which have been showered upon them, the Journal offers congratulations, and speaks for them the best that life affords.—Marceline (Mo.) Journal, February 14, 1908.

Fortescue.

J. T. Whipple is on the sick list, this week. Mrs. Jas. Cotton is on the sick list this week.

Willie Dodson is visiting relatives in Kansas City, this week. John, the 3-year old son of Noah Steele, is quite sick with laryngitis.

C. Cropper and W. A. Lowe, of Napier, were absent visitors Sunday.

H. C. Hines and Miss Verne Butrick, were Oregon visitors, Saturday.

Our school has an enrollment of 74 pupils—36 down stairs and 38 up stairs.

J. W. Hill returned Monday, after a short visit with his family in Forest City.

Miss Gertrude Holsclaw was absent from school last week, on account of sickness.

Strong talk is being heard about a W. O. W. camp being located here, which we all hope will prove to be successful.

Dan Patrick left Monday night, for his home in Rochester, N. Y., after several weeks' visit with friends and relatives here.

—What do you think of a fellow who is so jealous that it makes him as mad as a wet hen, for his "Tootsie Woostie" to play a part in a vaudeville sketch?

Our school is making great preparations for the entertainment which will be given at the school house in the near future. "From Pumpkin Ridge," will be the leading attraction. Watch for the date next week.

The following students of our school will complete the common school course this term: Misses Estella Butrick, Verne Butrick, Mabel McKown, Eudale Maloy, Mabel Lent, and Ethel Park. Boys: Henry Minton, Brian Colyar.

A person surely thinks himself "some punnins" when he imagines he can smoke another reporter out. Well, when you get your whip to popping and your bottle of condensed snuff, just look up and wonder who gave you the authority to announce the entertainment for next Saturday, Feb. 22, which was given in the Jeffersonian last week. No fixed date has yet been set for it, if anyone should happen to ask you.

A valentine party was given in honor of Miss Mabel McKown at her home last Friday night, where a host of young folks spent a glorious evening, being entertained by music by Miss Estella Butrick, and games of all sorts were played. Supper was then served and soon the crowd departed for their homes rejoicing over the valentine party of 1908.

Those who were present: Myrtle Rhodes, Verne Butrick, Mabel McKown, Leta McKown, Helen and Alpha Hinkle, Oma Holsclaw, Nellie Whipple, Little Cotton, Leta Minton, Eudale and Arla Maloy, Oren Butrick, Chas. Rhodes, Albert McKown, Lawrence Hestlie, Geo. Craig, Emmet and Roy Hinkle, Tim Huffman, Alfred Williams and Willie Walker. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brock, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Holsclaw, Mrs. C. V. Bowers. REPORTER.

—We had a touch of winter Tuesday of this week, 18th inst., after many disappointments. The storm began the forepart of the night, when sleet fell, melting and producing a slushy covering everywhere. Later its character changed, until well into the night the actual snowfall began. The intensity of the downfall moderated somewhat about 6 a. m., but by 9 o'clock the wind changed to the northeast, and a genuine blizzard was on. The snow was driven into drifts, preventing many rural carriers throughout the county from making their routes. Mr. Narans of route 5 made his route, but it was through the courtesy of Mr. Sol Meyer, who loaned him a horse and the last half of his route was made horse back. Trains were greatly delayed. The blizzard was general throughout the west and central states. The snowfall here was 6 1/2 inches and the precipitation 6 1/4 of an inch.
